

WILDLIFE BINGO

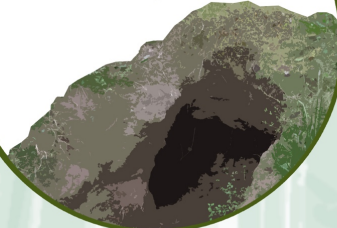

Scots pine

Hint: Look for a rusty orange bark

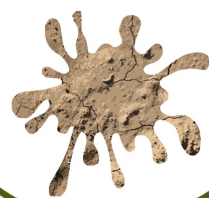

Burrow

Hint: They can be small for a mouse or larger for a rabbit

Mud

Hint: Mud is a great place to find animal tracks!

Gorse

Hint: This prickly shrub often has yellow flowers

Spider

Hint: They like dark places, like cracks in dead wood

Moss

Hint: Mosses like north facing damp areas

WILDLIFE BINGO

Birch

Hint: Look for a silver coloured bark

Juniper

Hint: This prickly tree might have small purple berries

Dead Wood

Hint: Dead wood is a great place to find bugs, lichens & fungi

Blackbird

Hint: Look for a bright orange beak and listen out for a melodic song

Worm

Hint: Worms are easiest to spot when it's raining. If it's dry, try stamping your feet!

Animal track

Hint: Look in muddy and wet areas

WILDLIFE BINGO

Oak

Hint: Look for their distinct leaves, either on the tree or on the ground

Heather

Hint: Look low on the ground. It might have purple flowers!

Stream

Hint: Listen for trickling water. It's a great place to find mud!

Slug

Hint: Slugs like dark and damp places. Perhaps under some dead wood?

Lichen

Hint: Look on tree bark. How many different ones can you see?

Buzzard

Hint: High in the sky, the silhouette of a large bird might be circling

WILDLIFE BINGO

Holly

Hint: It's not just for Christmas! Can you see those spikey leaves?

Fern

Hint: Often seen on growing from the forest floor

Pond

Hint: A great place to see a midge or two!

Beetle

Hint: They like rotting wood and some even like ponds

Seedling

Hint: A baby tree may be growing near it's parent

Droppings

Hint: You might see some around a rabbit's burrow

WILDLIFE BINGO

Hazel

Hint: This tree might have many smaller trunks

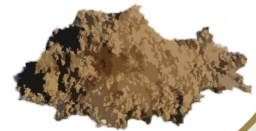

Blaeberry

Hint: Look down towards the forest floor

Mole hill

Hint: Look for hills of soft soil on more open ground

Chaffinch

Hint: Look for the rusty orange colour of the male

Fungi

Hint: Fungi loves dead wood!

Feather

Hint: The forest floor is the best place to look

WILDLIFE BINGO

Rowan

Hint: It's greyish-brown bark is shiny when wet

Tree stump

Hint: It might be hidden by moss. Look for lumps on the forest floor

Pine cone

Hint: Find them scattered on the floor around Scots pine trees

Midges

Hint: They like damp areas where there is no breeze

Wood ant

Hint: Look at open areas of the forest floor. Maybe you'll find an ant hill!

Seed or nut

Hint: The forest floor is the best place to look

